12 | Counsel for Defendant Activision Blizzard, Inc.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

18 FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION,
19 Plaintiff,
20 v.
22 MICROSOFT CORPORATION and
23 ACTIVISION BLIZZARD, INC.,
24 Defendants.

Case No. 3:23-cv-02880-JSC

IN SUPPORT OF DEFENDANT
ACTIVISION BLIZZARD, INC.'S FIFTH
AMENDED ADMINISTRATIVE
MOTION SEEKING IN CAMERA
TREATMENT OF CERTAIN EXHIBITS
PURSUANT TO CIVIL L.R. 7-11 AND 79-5

Date: TBA
Time: TBA
Dept.: Courtroom 8—19th Floor
Judge: Honorable Jacqueline S. Corley

1 I, Page Robinson, declare as follows:

2 1. I am a Senior Director of Litigation and Intellectual Property at Activision Blizzard,
 3 Inc. (“Activision”). I submit this declaration in support of Activision’s Fifth Amended
 4 Administrative Motion Seeking In Camera Treatment of Certain Exhibits Pursuant to Civil L.R. 7-
 5 11 And 79-5. In my role, I have personal knowledge of Activision’s use and protection of non-public,
 6 highly sensitive, and confidential business information, including the information at issue here.

7 2. I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth below, and I can and would 8 competently testify to such facts if called to do so.

9 3. I have reviewed as thoroughly as possible, given the time constraints and the volume
 10 of documents, the exhibits that appear on Plaintiff Federal Trade Commission (“FTC”) and 11 Defendants’ (collectively, the “Parties”) exhibit lists that Defendant Activision moves to have filed
 12 under seal. Such exhibits are identified in Activision’s Fifth Amended Administrative Motion
 13 Seeking In Camera Treatment of Certain Exhibits Pursuant to Civil L.R. 7-11 and 79-5 (the “Fifth 14 Amended Administrative Motion”).

15 4. As set forth in the Fifth Amended Administrative Motion, some of the exhibits that 16 appear on the Parties’ exhibit lists contain non-public and highly sensitive information, including, but 17 not limited to, information reflecting confidential internal business data, strategic evaluation of 18 forward-looking opportunities or investment decisions, revenue figures and projections, terms of 19 existing confidential agreements or business partnerships, assessments of the competitive landscape,
 20 and market share analyses.

21 5. Such information could be used to injure Activision if made publicly available.

22 6. Specifically, some of the exhibits contain information reflecting the terms of, and 23 negotiations regarding, commercial agreements that Activision does not disclose to third parties.
 24 Some of the exhibits also contain information reflecting the terms of, existence of, and negotiations
 25 regarding proposed commercial agreements that Activision does not disclose to third parties.

26 7. It would cause competitive harm to Activision if the above information was publicly
 27 disclosed. For example, when Activision negotiates commercial agreements with other video game

1 developers or platform providers, it would harm Activision's negotiating position if those developers
 2 and providers could compare the previous terms of, and negotiations regarding, similar commercial
 3 agreements to which Activision has previously agreed. Moreover, disclosure of such terms and
 4 negotiations would harm Activision by allowing other video game developers to circumvent the time
 5 and resources expended by Activision in developing the practices and strategies which culminated in 6 those terms and negotiations.

7 8. Some of the exhibits also contain information discussing Activision's confidential
 8 business strategy and planning. This information includes, for example, Activision's decision to
 9 participate, or not to participate, in newly-developed distribution services, as well as Activision's
 10 rationale for choosing to do so or not to do so.

11 9. It would cause competitive harm to Activision if the above information was publicly
 12 disclosed. For example, disclosure would give competing video game developers insight into
 13 Activision's strategies, plans, and assessments regarding potential opportunities, and they may alter
 14 their strategic plans or offerings if they knew Activision's strategies and plans. Disclosure of this 15 information would also harm Activision's negotiating position with platform providers.

16 10. Some of the exhibits also contain information regarding Activision's proprietary data
 17 and metrics, which Activision maintains to evaluate the performance of its content and user
 18 preferences, in part to better value its titles during future negotiations with business partners.

19 11. It would cause competitive harm to Activision if the above information was publicly
 20 disclosed. For example, disclosure of this information would harm Activision during future
 21 negotiations with platform providers.

22 12. Activision takes robust measures to maintain the confidentiality of all the above-
 23 described information, including limiting internal disclosure of some of this information to persons
 24 on a need-to-know basis, and does not disclose it publicly. All of this information was designated as
 25 confidential pursuant to Section 21 of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 57b-2, and/or as Confidential
 26 pursuant the Protective Order Governing Confidential Material entered on December 9, 2022
 27 ("Administrative Protective Order") in In the matter of Microsoft Corp. & Activision Blizzard, Inc.

1 Docket No. 9412 (FTC). For these reasons, Activision respectfully requests that the Court order the
2 exhibits identified in Activision's Fifth Amended Administrative Motion Seeking In Camera
3 Treatment of Certain Exhibits Pursuant to Civil L.R. 7-11 and 79-5 to be sealed.

4 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the 5 foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

7 Executed on June 27, 2023, in San Francisco, California.
